Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4, 8, and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dotts et al.

Dotts et al teaches a system having a reusable orbital vehicle, a plurality of attachment positions, and experimental packages (the tiles) that are placed throughout the space shuttle.

Claims 1-4, 8, and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cervisi et al.

Cervisi et al discloses a reentry vehicle having a skirt, experiment packages 110 (see figures 2, 4, and 6), and attachment positions.

Re claim 13, please note that any parts on the interior portion of the aft skirt can be broadly read as a protected attachment position. Please see the inside of today's interior portion of the aft skirt. Re claim 14, a screw or attachment members in the interior portion is well known in this day and age.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 3644

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 5-7, 9-11, and 22-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bridges et al in view of Dotts et al.

Bridges disclose a reusable orbital vehicle that has access panels (see figures 4-7) but is silent on the experimental packages. However, Dotts et al teaches that experimental packages and attachment positions are well known in the art.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to have used experimental packages and attachment positions if Dotts on Bridges et al's system to protect the spacecraft and to know how the tiles operates in space, during reentry and during launch.

Re claim 7, please note that the carrier plate is 14 in Bridges et al.

Re claims 22-24, please note that sensors such as vibration sensors or temperature sensors and avionics data buses and data storage units are notoriously well known in this day and age. The examiner takes official notice that these parts are well known.

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 3644

Claims 15-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 27-36 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Clapp et al, Mueller et al, and Ludwig et al teach spacecraft parts.
